

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

March 24, 2008

H.R. 5551

A bill to amend title 11, District of Columbia Official Code, to implement the increase provided under the District of Columbia Appropriations Act, 2008, in the amount of funds made available for the compensation of attorneys representing indigent defendants in the District of Columbia courts, and for other purposes

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform on March 13, 2008

H.R. 5551 would amend the District of Columbia Code to increase—from $65 per hour to $80 per hour—the rate of pay for attorneys representing indigent defendants in the District of Columbia courts. Under current law, the budget of the D.C. Courts system, including Defender Services, is funded by federal appropriations, and its expenditures are recorded on the federal budget. Based on information from the District of Columbia courts, CBO estimates that increasing the pay for attorneys would cost about $7 million in 2009 and $35 million over the 2009-2013 period, subject to the appropriation of the necessary amounts. Enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or revenues.

H.R. 5551 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
